New city stop sign—26th-State

A controversial traffic stop at 26th and State Street was repealed by the Granite City Council in its April 28 meeting because of protests received from motorists and even from residents living near the intersection, but Monday night the aldermen created a new traffic stop—only two blocks away.

The traffic control ordinance, presented to the council by Alderman Roy Poulos as chairman of the Ordinance Committee, provides a stop sign on the northwest corner of 26th and State Street requiring a stop by all southerly bound traffic on State Street. The action creates a three-way stop at the intersection since State is one-way street.

Presentation of the ordinance brought comment only from one alderman—Frank Greenwald who confessed on earlier occasions that he "took a lot of heat" because of the 26th-State street stop.

"I wouldn't touch it with a 10-foot pole," Greenwald quipped. He did vote in favor of the ordinance, however.

The only "no" vote against the new traffic stop was cast by Alderman Warren Decatur of the Fourth Ward who was seated during Monday's council meeting. It was Decatur's first negative vote after taking his seat on the council.

Sewer pipe illegal—EPA

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Granite City has five days remaining in which to inform the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency what it intends to do about solving the problem of open sewage flowing into the Nameoki Drainage canal through a "by-pass" sewer pipe and from broken sanitary sewer lines.

That edict was given the City

Council in its regular meeting Monday night in a letter from John J. Fornaris, acting manager of Region Four of the EPA Division of Water Pollution Control, who said the bypass sewer line taking raw sewage into the ditch under similar weather condition is "illegal" and that it "constitutes a definite potential health hazard and general nuisance condition."

On a motion by Alderman Gerald Parmley, council members voted to refer the problem to City Engineer Monroe Brewer with instructions that he study the matter, make up his recommendations and then notify the EPA of steps the city can take to rectify the situation.

Parmley's motion followed a lengthy discussion in which Alderman Walter Nann repeated previous suggestions that the city quit patching its broken sewers and "get busy with a plan for a new sewer system in the Nameoki area."

Mayor Paul Schuler emphasized the importance of the problem when he told the council that he had "taken the liberty" of discussing the sewage problem with his Community Resources Commission. "The commission, the mayor said, is expected to make a report on what it thinks should be done at the council's next meeting May 19.

The problem grows out of several sewer breaks in a line that passes under Nameoki ditch near Johnson Road. In periods of heavy rains, the rising ditch level creates pressure that forces storm-water into the sanitary lines and causes water and sewage to back up the basements and plumbing facilities of homes in the area.

To relieve this problem, City Street Superintendent Lionel Portell had street department workers install a sewer pipe from a nearby manhole that carries sewage into the open ditch. Portell justified the action in saying that sewage flows out of the pipe only in periods of heavy rains, and that sewage still seeped into the ditch from the sewer breaks in periods when the ditch is dry.

Referring to an inspection of the bypass line and the drainage ditch by an EPA engineer, Fornaris said:

"On March 28, 1975, Engineer J. N. Mahand of this agency viewed Nameoki Ditch in the area of Johnson Road and inspected the bypass line illegally installed in manhole LDD-18 of the city of Granite City sanitary sewer system. Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell and

Revenue sharing for GC payrolls

Faced with a fund shortage due to heavy costs for repairing broken sanitary sewer lines, the Granite City Council Monday night approved a recommendation that the city dip into its federal revenue sharing funds to pay for city operations during May and June.

Although the city's new fiscal year began May 1, tax monies do not become available until summer. This year, because of a delay in completion of tax books at Edwardsville, tax collections may not get under way until July.

The action was taken after City Clerk Robert Stevens informed the aldermen that he had been advised by City Treasurer Paul Rutledge of the "possibility of the tax bills being sent out at least a month later than they were last year, which would be July 1, resulting in later distribution of taxes collected."

Stevens added:

"I have reviewed the financial situation with regard to our ability to provide operating funds until tax monies are received. In view of this situation, I concur with the city treasurer in the recommendation that federal revenue sharing funds be used for payroll purposes for the months of May and June."

While the city receives monthly revenues in state income tax and state sales tax, income from those sources would be insufficient to meet operating costs.

Special car tag sale Saturday

For the first time, Granite City will operate a special car tag sale Saturday to sell vehicle tax tags.

City Clerk Robert Stevens said his office will assign two deputy clerks to sell the licenses at the Tri-City Grocery at Bellemeor Shopping Center. From 9 a.m. until noon Saturday.

Stevens said that a total of 8,865 licenses had been sold Wednesday—about half the total number sold to passenger car drivers and truck operators each year. Last year sales totaled slightly more than 17,000.

The vehicle tax stickers will increase by $2.50 on May 16. Passenger car licenses now cost $3 but will cost $5.50 after the increase. An additional $2.50 also will be charged for truck licenses in all weight categories beginning May 16.

The county's sewer committee is to meet as soon as possible with Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and members of the city's special sewer committee to discuss a proposal for connecting the proposed new East Madison and Eagle Park Acres sewers into the existing Granite City sewers in the northwest corner of the Tri-City Park area.

About 78.8 miles of collector and interceptor sewers would be put in the ground in East Madison and Eagle Park Acres. The residents using the new sewers then would pay Granite City for each gallon of sewage treated by the city's primary and secondary sewage treatment plants, under the proposal.

The plan has been endorsed by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission, pending approval by Granite City.

The proposed East Madison area sewer would be separate from the sewer which is to encircle the west and north areas around Granite City, providing sewers for portions of Nameoki and Chouteau Townships.

Both sewers plus a proposed sewer system which is to carry sewage from State Park Place to the Collinsville sewers, are included under the $10,309,900 grant which has been approved by the Illinois EPA for sewers in this area.

It is anticipated the county will have to provide $3,436,700 as the local share of the funding. A $4 million bond issue is planned to raise the local share and funds for services not included in the state grant, including administration of the program.

Plans for the sewer in Nameoki and Chouteau Townships have advanced to the stage where easements now are being collected.

Walter "Dick" Sparks, chairman of the county's sewer committee and supervisor of Chouteau Township, announced he has arranged a meeting for Tuesday and Wednesday, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. each day, in the basement of Mitchell Presbyterian Church to obtain easements from the residents of Greenway Village.

The dinner is one of several auspicious events arranged in the Granite City hospital in observance of "National Hospital Week," which starts Sunday and continues through Saturday, May 17.

Many activities, several involving the public, are planned during the week, including free test clinics for blood pressure, hearing, vision and diabetes, a breakfast for area ministers, an employees' picnic and for the youngsters—a visit by "Winnie the Pooh."

To inaugurate the week-long celebration, flowers and a layette will be presented to the mother of the first infant born at the local hospital on Sunday, and refreshments and boutonnières will be available

Offers W. Madison plan

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
Newly-elected Fifth Ward Alderman Donald E. Garrett presented to the Madison City Council Tuesday night a 10-point program that Garrett said was "Designed to bring West Madison residents into the mainstream of the Madison Community."

His points were:

1. That the Madison City Council meet in the West Madison Memorial Center once every quarter.

2. That a permanently-staffed Senior Citizens Center be set up in the West Madison Memorial Center and funded by the city.

3. That a Human Relations Council be formed to deal with friction and strife that results from racial conflict. The council would also insure to minority citizens their rights to the "pursuit of happiness" throughout the city . . . i.e., fair housing, equal access to public places, city funded programs, city funds.

4. That the city of Madison enter into a joint program with the city of Venice to build a fully equipped recreational center in the West Madison-North Venice area.

5. That the city of Madison initiate this summer a census of the city's black population.

6. That the city of Madison purchase land in the West Madison area and build housing units both for rental and sale.

7. That an Affirmative Action Committee be set up to insure that minority citizens receive an equal share of the available jobs.

8. That the city of Madison return the use of the West Madison Memorial Center to those taxpayers and citizens who spent their tax money to build it and whose tax dollars support it. That a full-time director be hired to implement programs that will benefit the whole citizenry. That social, civic and church groups be allowed to use that center free of charge.

9. That the City Council be placed on record as favoring the appointment of at least one black man to the Tri-City Regional Port District.

10. That the Madison City Council appoint Alderman Donald E. Garrett, Fifth Ward, as chairman of the ad hoc committee to study this proposal and its feasibility and to bring it back to the full council to vote on its implementation.

Mayor Mike Sasyk in a brief reply said, "As an alderman of the Fifth Ward you can implement many of these projects yourself with the aid of Alderman Booker Walton."

"In regard to the senior citizens using the Madison Memorial Center, it is available anytime to any responsible group without charge. All they need do is schedule its use through the Recreation Department."

"I want to emphasize to you that it is your job as Fifth Ward alderman to get things going; someone has to and that is why you were elected."

First Ward Alderman Robert Don Reeves said, "I can give him an answer to the first point if you can't, Mr. Mayor and that is a flat no. There is no council in the entire United States that holds city council meetings anywhere but in the City Council chambers."

Alderman Garrett then said he would review his program with Alderman Walton and see if they can "get some things going a little better in the Fifth Ward."

The council adjourned, without taking any formal action on any of the proposals.

Morlen and University drives. Easement forms will be available at the meetings which may be signed by the husbands and wives there. Any questions will be answered and maps will be available to show where the sewers are proposed on each lot.

Offices also have been established at the Nameoki Township Hall, 4250 Highway 162, and at the Chouteau Township Relief Office, 825 Township Drive, Mitchell, for the signing of easements.

Both Sparks and Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsett, a member of the sewer committee, have asked that persons wait until they are notified by telephone that their easements are ready before going to their township office to sign.

Sparks said the meetings for Granite City are experimental and may be used in other populated areas, if effective.

The meetings are in addition to use of the town halls to obtain easements. Many volunteers also are calling on their neighbors, requesting them to grant free easements for the sewers. Ed Juneau of the Shepherd, Morgan & Schwaab consulting and engineering firm, chief planner of the sewer program, said the sewers are being planned for the streets and in most areas to make it easier for homeowners to be connected to the sewers.

"If people won't give us the easements, we will just have to put the sewers in the right-of-way for the streets and the people will have to run their lines out the front to tap-on," he explained.

Juneau said his office received official notification Tuesday morning of the Illinois EPA grant approval. Sparks said the committee's attorney, Horace Calvo, is preparing the resolutions necessary for the county to officially accept the easements and the resolutions will be presented to the Madison County Board for adoption at the board's regular meeting at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, May 21.

Whitsett this week issued an open letter to residents of his township. The text of that letter follows.

"With the confirmation that the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has approved a grant of $30,300 to the Madison County Sewer District, efforts to acquire the necessary easements have been accelerated in Nameoki and Chouteau Townships.

"At Nameoki Township, we have set up a special operation, with the cooperation of Carl Calvo, tax assessor, manpower employees and volunteers to maintain office hours from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday, in an all-out effort to contact each individual property owner from whom an easement is required.

"We ask that residents please wait until we contact you, since we do not need an easement in every case. In some areas, streets or existing easements will be used.

"Many stories have been circulated about our sewer system that can be answered with the maps available at the township office.

"Our engineers have planned, in most cases, to bring the sewers to you by crossing private property, but if we cannot get full cooperation from the residents, we will be forced to construct the sewers in the streets.

"Only those who 'tap on' will pay for use of the sewers, however to take advantage of a reduced tap-on fee, you must be willing to tap on at the time we notify you that we are ready.

"Our tap on fee will begin at $250 per house. You may run your own sewer to our collector system, or hire someone to do it for you, but we will make all connections to our system.

"The Sewer District must borrow $2,456,700 to complete our program, which will be paid back, plus interest, by the users. The state grant is free to us and will not be paid back.

"We must also pay a treatment fee to the Granite City Treatment Plant to discharge our sewage into the Mississippi River.

"The Madison County Sewer District is making an effort to hold your monthly charge to around $6, but we realize that it could go to a maximum of $10 dollars in the beginning, until we attract new development, new industry and more users.

"After we pay off the less than $4 million we borrow, our users will pay only a treatment cost equal to all others in this region.

"Our sewers will be constructed bottle-tight and above the water table, with over 40 ft. of stations to protect the system from breakage problems, that have been experienced in this area.

"With full cooperation, we will begin construction at the end of this year, on the finest sewer system in this area, at only one-fourth of the actual cost."

Five die in crash

Five persons have died and a 15-year-old girl is in critical condition following a two-car accident on U.S. 40 a mile east of Route 4 near St. Louis.

Killed were the drivers of both cars and three young passengers in one car. State police said the auto of Larry G. Fayall, 17, St. Jacob, was eastbound on Route 4 and passed a school bus. As the car returned to the eastbound lane, it went out of control, skidded sideways across the southbound lane and was struck broadside by the southbound car of Jay Albertina, 35, Collinsville.

Pronounced dead at the scene were the drivers and two passengers in Fayall's auto, Steve Nungesser, 15, and Miss Patricia Meyer, 15, both of St. Jacob.

Miss Marilyn Fayall, 14, the driver's sister, and Miss Vicki Lockley, 15, Collinsville, were taken by ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland and were ordered transferred to Barnes Hospital, St. Louis.

En route to the St. Louis hospital, Miss Fayall began to lose signs of life. The ambulance driver turned to St. Elizabeth Hospital for aid.

Miss Fayall was reported to have a severe head injury and

Band festival May 17

The Granite City School District will sponsor its third All-City Band Festival at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 17, in Memorial Gymnasium of Granite City High School.

The first festival was initiated in 1973 and proved to be so successful the sponsors elected to make the concert an annual event.

Three bands will perform in the festival, including a combined high school band consisting of students from both North and South high schools; a junior high band composed of public and private schools; and Grigsby schools and an elementary school band made up of children from the North Nameoki and Lake Division bands.

About 300 musicians will participate in the festival with each of the three groups presenting separate programs of music.

Auditions and rehearsals are currently under way with the local band directors in charge until the day of the concert.

City may appeal claim out

A ruling by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration allowing $1,700 per day for detouring operations in the repair of broken sewer lines in the Nameoki area may be appealed by Granite City, council members indicated in meeting Monday night.

Letter received by the council from Thomas P. Dunne, FDAA administrator, said the $1,700 figure for detouring each day at sewer break repairs was based on a report by the Boyce Engineering Co., which made a study of sewer repair costs here for the federal government.

The city paid $2,500 per day for watering costs, which comprised a big part of the $2 million the city has spent for sewer repairs since the 1973 spring flooding created a high water table that damaged and broke sewers in many parts of the Nameoki area.

Mayor Schuler told the council, however, that the FDAA did grant funds that previously had been denied through rejection of some claims for repair work.

"What this amounts to is the government giving us 50 much with one hand and then taking away part of it with the other," the mayor told council members.

Dunne noted that the city did not draw up any specifications for the repair work and there was no way to determine what two bids received by the city would be the cheapest. The city entered a contract to the Fins Ernest Co. of St. Louis to which the city eventually paid $1.6 million in sewer repair bills.

The city claimed reimbursements from the government totaling approximately $1 million, but the government thus far has approved claims for about $700,000.

Leading the parade will be Miss Pam Pritchard, the newly selected queen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Mildred) Pritchard, Mitchell; and the queen's two attendants—Dawn Kindle, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monty (Carol) Kindle of Mitchell; and Lisa Brennan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry (Pat) Brennan of Mitchell.

Included also in the ceremonies are: Madison County Sheriff John Maers; Willard "Bulch" Portell, clerk of the circuit court; State Representative Joe Lucero, and R. J. Davis, superintendent of Granite City public schools.

Shannon, who will officially crown the new queen in pregame ceremonies, was an all-state football and basketball player at Christian Brothers College High School, St. Louis, and later played football at the University of Missouri.

While in college, he signed a baseball contract with the Cardinals, serving three years in the minor leagues before joining the Cardinals as an outfielder. He was named to an all-star team in 1968. Three years ago he assumed the baseball broadcasting of Cardinal games with Jack Buck.

The 1 p.m. parade will originate at Mitchell Grade School, travel east on Chain of Rocks Road to Greenway Drive, and south two blocks to the Mitchell athletic fields.

National honor to Schmitt

Carey E. McDonald, executive director of the National High School Athletic Coaches Association, has announced Granite City High School wrestling mentor William "Red" Schmitt, has been named the association's 1975 recipient of a national distinguished service award. Schmitt has served the high school coaching profession and athletics for 20 years, 25 of which have been at GCHS South as its mat mentor.

"The NHSACA is pleased to have the opportunity to give much deserved recognition to athletic leaders in high school work like Coach Schmitt," stated McDonald.

"Too often, too few really appreciate the contribution of time, effort, and the important enthusiasm necessary in athletic and/or coaching success."

The Barnett Pest Control Termite team captured the Junior Atom Division soccer championship last week with a 4-3 overtime decision over Peisk Realty.

Stegemeier feels Dickerson 'overpowers a lot of hitters'

Granite City High School North baseball mentor Bob Stegemeier believes his second-year Steeler squad's 14-5 record, heading into Friday's district competition against Edwardsville, can be contributed to several factors—good defense, alert catchers and a balanced pitching staff in Bill Dickerson, John Scott, Daris Davis and Mike Waldo.

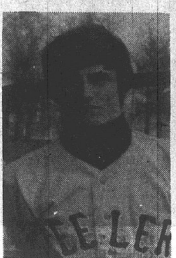

"It's difficult to single out any one player as having had the lead role in our success," comments Stegemeier, "but Dickerson has not been beaten on the mound."

The right-handed senior hurler has five wins against no losses. In 48 innings, Dickerson has given up six earned runs and has an earned run average (ERA) of 0.88, "which means he has allowed less than one earned run per game," explained the head mentor.

At 5-9 and 145 pounds, Dickerson has walked 14 batters and fanned 40.

"That's almost a one to four walk to strikeout ratio," calculates the Steeler coach, "which we feel is tremendous. A 1-2 ratio is considered average."

Dickerson is blessed with good ball control and hurls a surprisingly quick fast ball.

BILL DICKERSON
Steeler hurler

"I think he overpowers a lot of hitters when looking at him on the mound, think he can't throw hard, but he has real good form and puts a lot of body into each pitch," Coach Stegemeier related.

The Steeler began his pitching duties while a student at Grigsby Junior High School, continued pitching in park league competition. As a sophomore at GCHS (now GCHS South) he began as a reliever.

Dickerson started last year's season with the Steelers as a relief pitcher and from there worked his way into the starting rotation with a full seven inning defeat of Weslin. He later pitched a 13-inning game against GCHS South, won by the South Warriors.

As a former relief hurler, Dickerson has pulled many starters out of tight spots. When he is in a similar situation, his throwing accuracy usually puts him on top of opposing batters.

"I recall in one inning this past weekend in our double win over Edwardsville," says Stegemeier, "the Tigers had no outs and the bases loaded."

"Dickerson then put down three batters in a row—a ground ball to our third baseman for a force out at home, a pop-fly, and a ground out. He's been doing that all season."

"He knows what he's doing out there and he doesn't give most opponents anything. He stranded 13 Tiger runners."

Asked if he will start against the Tigers, Coach Stegemeier responded when a team goes into a tournament of this caliber, a coach has to go with who he thinks is the best in every ballgame."

GC hockey player, 17, named 'Most Valuable'

David Rapoff, 17, of Granite City, a defenseman for the St. Louis Blazers hockey team, received the "Most Valuable Player Award" of the St. Louis Metro Junior "B" League at a banquet held during the weekend at the Missouri Athletic Club.

About 500 persons attending the annual awards dinner heard the Granite City player commended by his coach, Lou Struckman, who noted the youth's accomplishment of scoring 21 goals, although playing a defensive position. His skill in key penalty killing situations also was praised.

Coach Struckman announced Rapoff as his choice of team captain for the 1975-76 hockey season.

A senior at Granite City High School South, the youth is a son of Mrs. Shirley Rapoff, 2838 Edison Ave.

He has played hockey for the past seven years and performed with the Granite City Hockey Association for five years before transferring to the Metro League in St. Louis.

Rapoff, who was on the ice for every game his team played during the 1974-75 hockey season, is eligible to play with the Blazers' squad until he is 19 years old.

MOST VALUABLE. David Rapoff of Granite City, who was named "Most Valuable Player" in the St. Louis Metro Junior "B" League and Blazers team captain in 1975-76. The defenseman scored 21 goals the past season.

Cougar netmen win tourney

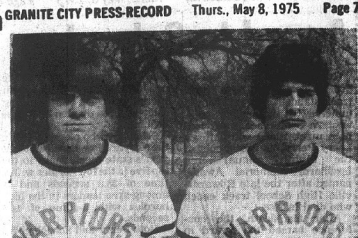

The Cougar tennis team captured SIUE's fourth St. Louis Area Collegiate Athletic Association (SLACAA) championship of the year as they won the conference tournament during the weekend.

Coach Kent DeMars' Cougars shut out St. Louis University 9-0 and whitewashed the University of Missouri-St. Louis in the finals, 9-0. UMSL wound up second, defending champion Washington University third, St. Louis U. Fourth, and Concordia Seminary and Lindenwood College tied for fifth.

Earlier this year, the Cougars won SLACAA championships in soccer, cross-country and golf. SIUE's victories over St. Louis colleges who compete in seven sports throughout the school year: soccer, cross-country, basketball, swimming, golf, tennis and baseball.

Besides those entered in the tennis tournament, other member schools include Missouri Baptist College, Harris Teachers College and McKendree College. Last year, Washington U. and SIUE won the most SLACAA titles, three.

SIUE's victories over St. Louis U. and UMSL in the tennis tournament upset the squad's record to 16-8, including a string of four consecutive victories. The Cougars return to the courts for their final meet of the regular season as they travel to Macomb Saturday for the Western Illinois University Triangular.

SOPHOMORE HURLER Paul Evans, right, of Granite City High School South has assisted his team to a 14-2 record with six wins and no losses on the mound. He recently went 11 innings in the Warriors 6-3 defeat over Collinsville. Evans, also a good hitter, was credited last week with four RBI's in South's 11-8 win over East St. Louis while John Lakin, left, was on the mound. Lakin also proved himself a slugger, doubling in the latter contest.

Trojan nine top Aviston

The Madison High School Trojan nine won its fourth game of the season here Monday, defeating Aviston Central 6-2.

Kevin Werner went the distance on the mound, walking four and fanning 13 batters while allowing six hits. Madison had six hits and played flawlessly while Central was charged with seven errors.

Now with a 4-2 record, Madison opened with three first-inning runs. Pete Feurka reached base on an error; Joe Gulash walked; Cedric Wilson had a sacrifice fly; Darryl Franklin walked and Danny Hancock and Steve McManney singled.

Joe Gulash started Madison's three-run scoring in the third inning with a hit. He stole second and then third. Emmitt Timmons doubled; Wilson singled stole second and third, and Hancock reached base on an error.

Stunt man to appear at Tri-City race

Len Gittemeier, defending Tri-City Speedway late model stock car champion, will seek his third feature race win of the season Saturday at the local race track, 5100 Nameki Road.

After Gittemeier's attempt, a 52-year-old named Ron "Crash" Wilson will attempt to drive his auto through a 3,000 pound solid wall of ice on the front straightaway—and survive to pull off his helmet, raise his hands and say, "Hey baby. You made it one more time," as he has been quoted as saying before.

Wilson will rev up an old convertible to about 60 miles an hour and aim it at a stack of 300-pound ice cubes (3,000 pounds all together) and crash head-on into the barricade.

He began his career with Lucky Teter "the originator of crash acts," says Wilson. Teter was killed at the Indiana State Fair in 1941. Wilson answered the call for a stunt man, and he's still going strong 30 years later, despite several side lining injuries.

His right knee functions with a aid of a pin; his jawbone is held together with wire; practically all of his teeth have been dislodged, and nearly all of his body is covered with mementos of his profession.

"You never expect to get killed," says the man who covers between 25,000 and 35,000 miles a year in a six-month summer tour as an added attraction to local stock car races.

He recalled nearly five years ago when his wife, Janis, was killed during a stunt in which the then husband and wife team attempted a head-on crash while each was traveling more than 50 miles per hour. "I always expect to get hurt a little on each stunt, but when I finish a stunt and can jump out of the car in front of the grandstand and raise my hands, I feel that I've made it one more time."

Wilson's act will follow the speedway's regular stock car racing program which begins at 7:30 p.m.

Cougar trackmen to close season
SIUE's track athletes will compete in their final meet of the 1975 season Saturday in the Illinois Intercollegiate Championships at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.

The Cougars wind up one of their finest seasons ever with a 7-1 dual-meet mark, having lost only to Bradley University, 77-68.

Granite City Mike Allen is among five Cougars, the most ever, to qualify for the NCAA Division II championships May 26 to 30 in Sacramento, Calif., by equaling or bettering an established 440-yard indoor mile hurdle time of 5:11 seconds.

He became the only track All-American in SIUE history last year when he finished sixth in that event at a division level meet.

Engineering debt poses problem

Questions as to whether the East Side Levee and Sanitary District legally can pay bills exceeding $4,000 without bidding were discussed by the levee district's trustees during a regular meeting in Granite City yesterday morning.

The meeting was attended by: Trustee William "Mike" Ebersold, mayor of Venice; Trustee Russell Robinson of Granite City, and Board President Jack Scoville of East St. Louis. Trustees Robert Wilben and Charles Meyers, both of East St. Louis, were absent.

An offer from Hurst-Roscoe Engineers, Inc., of Hillsboro for an out-of-court settlement of a $39,955 bill for engineering services on Harding Ditch improvements was considered. The firm offered to settle the claim for $20,000 if it did not have to sue the district to recover the money.

Ebersold said the offer "deserves further study. Before we can make an expenditure of this size and type, we must get a state attorney's opinion or an opinion from the attorney general."

Levee district by-laws require bidding on all expenditures over $4,000, but the engineering contract was awarded in 1972 without bidding, it was alleged.

A court judgment against the district for $9,070 due Financial Guardian Insurance Co. also was discussed and Ebersold said he could not vote to comply with the judgment until he had an opinion from either the Madison or St. Clair state's attorney or the attorney general.

It was alleged that Wilben had taken out insurance for the district without board action. The judgment represents a portion of the premiums which the board declined to pay, because the majority of the board members felt the insurance was not obtained legally.

Ebersold was appointed as a committee of one to study a proposal from the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the office of Gov. Dan Walker for a qualified engineer from the corps to be loaned to the district for a year to study the district's problems.

The corps is offering Thomas J. Farrell, civil engineer, to the levee district, if the district will pay $12,597 per year, representing 51 per cent of his salary. The state may assist the levee district in paying the salary, it was explained.

The district transferred $20,500 back into the Doherty Sloop drainage account. The money had been borrowed from that account previously to help meet insufficiencies in other accounts.

Wise Communications was awarded a $2,365 contract to move the district's radio tower and facilities from the district's garage to the main office.

The board also voted to have a qualified roofer study a leaking roof at the north pump station and recommend whether a new roof is needed. The project will be opened for bidding after the extent of the required work is determined.

Smoke to determine illegal sewer taps

A program of injecting smoke into many Nameki area sanitary sewers to locate illegal sewer connections and potential breaks is to be initiated by the Granite City Engineering Department, Monroe Brewer, city engineer, told the Granite City Council Monday night.

Brewer said smoke will be injected into small sections of the sanitary sewer system to note leaks. The smoke will go into illegal connections, such as downspouts, and will be detected by city inspectors who are aware that they have illegal storm drains connected to the sanitary sewers.

Residents who are aware that they have illegal storm drains connected to the sanitary sewer are requested to voluntarily remove them before the testing program begins, Brewer said, adding that city ordinance 1710 provides fines of from $200 to $500 for persons who use the sanitary sewers for storm water drainage.

"Residents will receive 24 hours advance notice before the smoke testing crew comes to their area. Residents who have a problem with the smoke or notify the city engineer's office at 575-5054," Brewer explained.

He emphasized that the smoke is non-toxic and harmless. "It should not enter anyone's home unless the plumbing system in the house is substandard," he said.

He explained that persons having basement drains may wish to put the drain plugs in position before the smoke testing, but adding that the basement drain traps will keep the smoke from entering the house unless the traps are dry.

Two contracts with the Operating Engineers union were approved by the board. One gives disposal plant operators a "catch-up" raise of 15 per cent. The other covers pump station employees, giving them 35 cents per hour more in the first year and another 10 cents in the second year. It also includes $46 per year more in health and welfare insurance premiums. The payrolls and routine claims were approved.

Board Member L. Monroe Worthen then made a motion to conduct only business of immediate urgency and to recess the meeting until Monday night, May 15, at 7:30 p.m.

Approved were the minutes from the past meetings, resignations, leaves of absence and the extension of a leave of absence.

Board members voted to allow the administration take the necessary actions on requests for the use of school facilities and on the acceptance of gifts, the actions to be reviewed by the board during the recessed meeting.

Francis said he was surprised by Mosele's action and said, "It would have been unfair to my client to go to trial and try to bluff my way through. I thought it only fair to inform the court of my problem. I certainly did not expect what happened."

He explained, "I can't read the law books. The court felt, and probably properly so, that I should have told it first and not on the day of trial."

"I made some efforts to prepare myself, but could not do it," he commented. Francis said he hoped his new glasses would be ready for trial this Monday, but he was not sure they would be. He added he probably would ask Judge Mosele at a future date to reconsider the decision.

Attorney fined $500 in trial delay

Attorney Terryl W. Francis, who has his office at 2770 Madison Ave., was cited by Circuit Judge Victor Mosele for contempt of court Monday and fined $500.

Judge Mosele was reported angry because Francis was not ready to proceed with the trial of an armed robbery case against Robert Tidwell, 27, formerly of the 3200 block of Kilarney Drive.

Tidwell is charged with stealing a bicycle from a shop on the Parkside Food Shop, 3202 Maryville Road, Feb. 19. The case first was set for trial April 21 when Tidwell was represented by an attorney assigned by the public defender's office. At that time, Tidwell said he wanted Francis to defend him.

Mosele gave Tidwell a continuance, due to the change in counsel. Mosele was reported to have told Francis several times to be ready for trial May 5. When court opened Monday, Mosele advised Francis to proceed and he said he was not ready. He said he was having difficulty seeing and needed a new set of glasses.

The state's attorney's office reported it was ready for trial and the jury was ready. Mosele ordered the $500 fine against the attorney for contempt of court and said he had to go to trial and try to bluff my way through. I thought it only fair to inform the court of my problem. I certainly did not expect what happened."

Car hits pole

Roger McDonald, 16, of 2800 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, was injured when his auto failed to negotiate the curve on Old Alton Road near Franco Lane and struck a utility pole this week.

Madison County Sheriff's deputies said the car continued about 35 feet after striking the pole before coming to a halt.

McDonald was treated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital for abrasions to his upper lip, right arm and right elbow and he was released.

"If the traps are dry, the residents should have been experiencing the smell of sewer gas in the basements. Still, persons who do not use their basement drains often for scrubbing floors or for clothes washers should pour a bucket of water down the drain about every six months to be sure the water in the trap does not evaporate, leaving the line open from the sewer into the house," he explained.

This program is being initiated to correct basement flooding which occurs in some areas when it rains. Downspouts and area drains which are connected into the sanitary sewers cause excess flow during storms and as these sewers are only designed for sanitary sewage, the additional flow causes backups.

"The area where the problem is the most critical is the Nameki sewer area where, in addition, many sewer breaks have occurred. The plan, as initiated, primarily will be concerned with this area, starting in the vicinity of the St. Clair Avenue lift station at Nameki Road.

GC police dance tickets on sale

Tickets costing $2.50 each are available this week from Granite City police officers for the 14th annual dance to benefit the Police Health and Welfare Fund. The event is scheduled from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday, May 16, at Collinsville Park Ballroom.

Patrolman Fred Hoffman, dance chairman, said tickets also may be obtained at GC police headquarters in the City Hall building. Refreshments, including setups, will be available at the dance, he added.

Music for dancing will be furnished by The Newtons.

A "problem laboratory" has enabled Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to earn the 1974-75 Western Electric Fund Award for significant innovation in collegiate business education.

The School of Business at SIUE, which was presented the award during the annual meeting of the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), was honored for developing a management problem laboratory program.

The AACSB, in conjunction with the Western Electric Co., presents the award each year in an effort to encourage development of new learning technologies in management education.

SIUE's "laboratory" is based on the premise that "educational programs in business and management science must produce good problem solvers."

Yet, the SIUE faculty noted, "teaching problem-solving skills in a traditional academic program often results in students pursuing single disciplinary solutions."

"For example, a student doing a case analysis for a marketing course tends to view it entirely as a marketing problem," explained David J. Werner, dean of the SIUE School of Business.

"We know, however, that the more disciplines the student can perceive, the better his problem-solving ability will be," Werner said.

The problem laboratory, he contends, allows students to apply concepts learned in the academic program to problems faced by an actual business enterprise.

A fast food outlet, two automobile dealerships, an apartment complex, an electric components manufacturer and a stockyard have all volunteered to supply the students with data needed to solve hypothetical problems presented by the faculty members.

"The laboratory forces the student into an interdisciplinary approach," Werner said. "However, the faculty members need not be highly interdisciplinary, since they are primarily concerned with their own courses," he said.

Mrs. Sophia Torres, 1516 Market St., Madison, reported at 9:45 p.m. Monday to Madison police that her son, Artie Torres, 13, had been missing from home since about noon on Saturday.

Young Torres is five feet one inch tall, weighs 120 pounds, has black curly hair, dark complexion and is of medium build. The boy's mother said she is afraid of foul play.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE of more than 200 listen attentively to Mrs. N. J. (Louise) Leonard of Champaign, at the Quad-City Church Women United's May Fellowship Day at St. John United Church of Christ. The annual program, celebrated in similar fashion, by women's groups throughout the world, was followed by an 'old-fashioned tea,' the organization's sole fund-raising project of the year. 200 attend May Fellowship Day

Two hundred guests gathered last week at St. John United Church of Christ for the Church Women United annual May Fellowship celebration. The theme of the program was "Open to Live Fully."

Mrs. Ronald Pennell, coordinator of the Days of Celebration, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. N. J. (Louise) Leonard of Champaign, who stressed the importance of volunteering one's talents to help in areas of need in order to improve one's self, the community, the state, the country and subsequently—the world.

Mrs. Leonard, current vice-president of Church Women United in Illinois, also is on the governing board of the national group. She is a native of The Netherlands and was a member of the Dutch underground during World War II.

After an invocation by the Rev. Dr. Paul Surbey, the guests were welcomed by Mrs. James Henderson, local Church Women United president, and Mrs. Irene Barrick, Mrs. Emmett Carragher and Mrs. Surbey presented the musical portion of the program, followed by a scripture reading by Mrs. Walter Aerne.

The Dedication of the Least Coin, a traditional part of the May Fellowship celebration, was given by Mrs. Dee Roberts. An unusual and pleasant surprise in the program came with the presentation of the "wells" in the group's "Water for Women" project. Recognizing the dire need for pure water in arid areas of the world, especially in Africa, the local chapter decided at their World Day of Prayer in March to attempt to donate funds to cover the cost of drilling one well in a water-starved region. Cups were distributed to the guests at the March celebration, and they were asked to fill their "wells" with coins and return them at the May Fellowship observance. The aim of the group was to collect $255, or the cost of drilling one shallow well.

Mrs. George Vogeler, chairman of CROP—Church World Service, received the "wells" and announced the contributions totaled $264.20, just 80 cents short of the amount needed to drill three wells. The thrust of the local organization of Church Women United is aimed primarily toward social concerns in the immediate geographical area, but it also contributes to overseas relief through CROP—Church World Service. The latter group will administer the funds for the three wells, Mrs. Vogeler said.

Following the program an "old fashioned tea" was enjoyed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ralph Elliott, assisted by women of St. John Church. The local Church Women United group subsists solely on donations by church groups and individuals, with the May Fellowship observance being the only fund-raising event of the year.

Rotary Anns tour Rockome area

A day-long excursion to the Rockome Gardens and town of Old Bagdad, near Arcola, Ill., was made by 21 members of the Granite City Rotary Anns on Tuesday.

The group traveled on the "Big Mac" tour bus, furnished by the local McDonald's Restaurant, Mrs. Mary Wilkins, Mrs. Dorothy Kerch and Mrs. June VanHorn were in charge of arrangements.

Famous for its colorful flowers and miles of unique rockworks, Rockome is located on a 207-acre farm. On the town of Old Bagdad, the group visited an old fashioned general store, where homestyle apple butter, handwoven rugs and hand-dipped candles were available. Other interesting sites visited, included a farmhouse furnished in the style of Amish homes, with antique china and glassware and intricate hand-made quilts.

Lunch was served at the Dutch Kitchen Restaurant in Arcola. On the agenda was an election of officers. Mrs. Lois Winters, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Named to serve in 1975-76 were: Mrs. Jo Ann Terrell, president; Mrs. Linda Bristol, vice-president; Mrs. Gail Miller, secretary, and Mrs. Billie Schuler, treasurer. All will assume their duties in October.

The club will conclude its season on June 30 at the home of Mrs. Jessie Meng in Edwardsville.

Taking part in the trip were Mesdames Evelyn Ackerman, Jonella Bowman, Linda Bristol, Lorraine Decatur, Judy Dew, Marie Dotzauer, Carma Froemling, Jackie Harding, Lois Hassler, Wilma Herring, Clara Huber.

Mesdames Betty Mathias, Gail Miller, Peggy Milton, Billie Schuler, JoAnn Terrell, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Winters and two guests, Mrs. Versa Mallahan and Mrs. Kathy Lane.

CLOUDY MORNING fails to dampen the spirits of the Granite City Rotary Anns, who prepare to depart for the Rockome Gardens and Old Bagdad town, near Arcola, Ill., Tuesday. Travel was provided by the local McDonald's Restaurant on the luxurious 'Big Mac' bus. Arno Sponeaman, right, McDonald transportation specialist, St. Louis Division, chats with the Mrs. Mary Wilkins, program chairman, and Mrs. Lois Winters, president, third from right. From left to right are Mesdames Versa Mallahan, Marie Dotzauer, Judy Dew, Kathy Lane, Peggy Milton, Betty Mathias, Lorraine Decatur (hidden), Jo Ann Terrell, Wilma Herring, Linda Bristol, Gail Miller, Evelyn Ackerman, Billie Schuler (partially obscured), Clara Huber, Carma Froemling, Lois Hassler, Jackie Harding, Dorothy Kerch, Jonella Bowman, Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Wilkins and Sponeaman.

Jury system explained

Juries in both civil and criminal court cases take into account the human factors and are felt to be more just and offer more equitable decisions, according to Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons of the Third Judicial Circuit Court.

Judge Gibbons was the guest speaker at the Granite City Rotary club meeting Tuesday noon in the YMCA.

Jurors perform a very important role in the judicial system and render a real public service, he said.

In explaining the jury system, the speaker said that the jury list is taken from the registered voters' list, but that this is not the best system as everyone is not a registered voter.

It was noted that in Madison and Bond counties alone last year there were over 90,000 civil and criminal cases.

The Judge explained that after a juror is selected the job is three fold; sit, wait and then serve.

Rotary President Walter Milton, Bill H. Terrell, president-elect, and four other members will attend District 646 Rotary meeting in Peoria, May 16, 17 and 18.

Next week, Rotarian Elwood Ackerman will show a film on Sun City, Ariz., a favorite vacation and retirement location for many according to Ackerman.

CITIZEN RADIO STOLEN
A citizens' band radio was removed from the auto of William Briggs, 233 Grand Ave., it was reported Thursday afternoon. A vent window was pried open to gain entry.

Two charged in robbery

Steve Simpson, 18, of 2943 Oregon St., and David R. Hunt, 22, of 4124 Kaseberg Park, Pontoon Beach, were charged with armed robbery after being arrested in Granite City Monday.

Dana Marmino, Wood River, alleged the two boys and a 13-year-old boy with them, robbed and stabbed him west of Route 3 near Wood River Monday morning.

They allegedly took $4, his $100 wristwatch and his car keys.

Marmino said he had parked his car and was walking nearby when he saw a youth looking in a window of his car. When Marmino approached, the youth displayed a knife and demanded his money.

The robber told him to walk to the other door of the car and two other youths approached from another car parked nearby. The one with the knife got into the passenger side of Marmino's auto and when Marmino attempted to grab his car keys through the window, the youth cut his left hand with the knife, he told deputies.

They made the victim get into the car and took his watch from the glove compartment. It was reported. They also allegedly stole a pocket camera. The men later demanded he walk with them to their car. Marmino said while they were walking, he ran. The youth with the knife chased him a short distance but let him get away.

The victim walked to a telephone and notified the Madison County Sheriff's Department. He gave deputies a description of the robbers' car which was broadcast to all area police departments.

Granite City police saw a car matching the description and stopped it at 25th and Center streets. The three youths inside were ordered out and the older two were handcuffed. Officers alleged finding Marmino's watch and car keys and a bottle of pills on the front seat of the car.

The 13-year-old was released to his parents pending juvenile court action. Simpson and Hunt were taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Drug problem is alarming

The drug problem in elementary schools is alarming, according to Dave Hutchison of the Madison Council on Alcohol and Drug Dependency.

Hutchison spoke at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Madison Rotary club in the Madison Recreation center, Seventh and Lee streets, Madison.

Hutchison told the Rotarians that a child must be educated properly concerning drugs before he is 13 years of age, because today after a youth is 13 or 14 he knows more about drugs in most cases than his parents.

Rotarian Christ Pashoff reported that Rotarian Jack Lee shot a 37, one over par, which was the best score in the Rotary golf day at Arlington Golf Club Saturday.

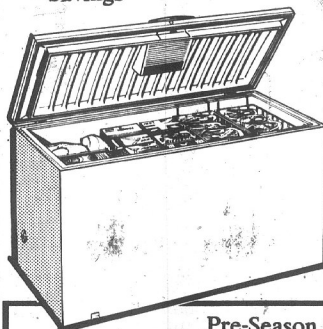

APARTMENT BURGLARY
Thieves ransacked the apartment of Linda Matthews, 601 Gaslight Walk, Pontoon Beach, between 10:30 p.m. Saturday and 4 a.m. Sunday, and took loot worth more than $1,000. Entry was gained by forcing the front door.

'South Pacific' next week at South Probe rape reports

"Some Enchanted Evening," "Ball Hail" and "There is Nothin' Like a Dame" are among the most popular numbers from "South Pacific." The Rogers and Hammerstein musical to be presented by the Granite City High School South Vocal Music Department at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, May 15 and 16.

The public is invited to attend the show, scheduled to be staged in the South High Auditorium.

Tickets, costing $1 each, may be obtained from vocal students, in the South cafeteria during lunch periods, or at the door immediately before the 8 o'clock curtain-time.

Set on the islands of the South Pacific during World War II, the musical combines humorous situations, homesickness and tragedies of war into a fast-moving and entertaining collage of scenes, frequently funny and sometimes nostalgic.

Among the cast members and the numbers they will perform are — Jennie Powderly as "Nellie Forbush," who sings "I'm in Love With a Wonderful Guy" and "A Cockeyed Optimist"; David Tripp as "Emile de Becque," her romantic and mysterious French suitor, whose numbers include "Some Enchanted Evening" and "Nellie Was Mine"; Marvin Moehle as "Lieutenant Joseph Cable," who sings "Younger Than Springtime" and "Carefully Taught," and Mary Beth Powderly as "Bloody Mary," who presents the haunting "Ball Hail" and "Happy Talk."

Two rousing songs by the male chorus, led by Rawleigh Armes as "Luther Billis," introduce "Bloody Mary" and "There is Nothin' Like a Dame."

The female chorus and Jenny Powderly as "Nellie" presents "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair" and "Honey Bun."

The production is under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ann Bright, vocal music instructor, assisted by Richard King of the South Speech Department.

Mrs. Bright noted that no seats will be reserved and the doors will be open to the public at 7:15 p.m. for both performances.

Promoted to branch manager

Eldon C. Frisse has been promoted from loan manager of Commercial Credit Corporation's Granite City office, 2 American Village, to branch manager.

A native of Highland, Frisse joined the national installment finance and personal loan firm in 1973 as loan manager, returning to Granite City in 1974 in a similar capacity. This is the post he held prior to his recent promotion.

In his new position as Granite City branch manager, Frisse will supervise Commercial Credit's installment finance and consumer loan programs in this area.

Frise is a veteran of the U. S. Army and a member of Granite City Eagles F.O.E. 1125. He and Mrs. Frisse, the former Donna Moore, of Flora, reside on Iowa Street.

Granite City police and Madison County sheriff's deputies are investigating reports that a man may be attempting to pick up young girls in Granite City by displaying a pistol and ordering them into his car.

Officials are described as "skeptical" about two reports received this week of attempts to pick up girls by using a gun. One girl, 15, alleged she was raped by the man.

In the first case, a 15-year-old girl said she and two girl friends were forced at gunpoint into a car near Johnson Road and Carlson Avenue.

The man later let one girl out of the car and drove the other two to Terminal Avenue by the railroad tracks where he was reported to have raped one girl, never touching the other.

The second report was received at 8:50 p.m. Monday by a 15-year-old girl, an acquaintance of the girl who said she was raped.

The older girl said a man displayed a gun and ordered her into his car, but she ran into a nearby home. The incident occurred near where the other girls said they were forced into an auto.

All of the girls said the man first approached asking directions to Pontoon Beach. City juvenile authorities investigated the reports and brought the county into the investigation because the alleged location of the rape was outside of the city limits.

The man was described as about 30-years-of-age and having short hair. He drove a four-door auto.

Officers said there seems to be no reason for alarm, but they are watching carefully the area where the girls say the incidents occurred.

Seek owner of stolen tent

The Granite City Police Department would like to return a stolen tent to its owner, but are encountering a problem — they do not know who the owner is.

The tent was found in a yard in the 2600 block of Cleveland Boulevard. It apparently had been set up as the stakes were still in the tent loops that secure the tent to the ground.

Anyone believing the tent to be his is requested to contact Capt. Francis McManus at the Granite City Police Department or call him during the day at 451-9760.

"The work of the legislature plays a very large part in a regulated industry such as savings and loan, Froemling said. "No longer can financial institutions afford to be apathetic to the legislative process."

"Extension of the usury ceiling in Illinois is only an important issue before the legislature affecting savings and loans this year."

Bike rodeo, carnival Saturday in Madison

A bicycle rodeo and carnival will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the Louis Beer School, McCambridge Avenue and Rhodes Street, Madison, sponsored by the Madison Mothers Club, according to Mrs. Mary Anna Kaminski, club president-elect and publicity chairman.

The public is invited to attend the carnival, but the "bike" rodeo is open only to fourth, fifth and sixth grade students attending school in Madison, Mrs. Kaminski said.

Madison Explorer Post 1004 will assist the Madison police officers to register the bicycles for owner identification, one of the requirements to enter the rodeo, the club officer explained.

Skill tests will be given and a certificate will be awarded to those completing the contest. Rodeo participants also will qualify as contestants for a 10-speed bicycle to be offered as a prize.

Ten-cent tickets will be available for refreshments and carnival games. Games will include bean bag toss, turkey shoot, cake walks and similar contests.

Organizations planning to assist at the event are the parent-teacher groups, Madison Police Auxiliary, Explorers Post 1004, Madison Senior Citizens and the Madison Recreation Department.

The club's current president, Mrs. Georgia Stawar, will attend and introduce the newly-elected officers: Mrs. Kaminski, president; Mrs. Margaret Blackshear, vice-president; Mrs. Stawar, secretary; and Mrs. Marilyn Schaffner, treasurer.

Installation ceremonies will be conducted May 20 at the Plantation Dinner Theatre, St. Louis County.

Job's Daughters convene in St. Louis

For the first time in its history, the Illinois Grand Session of International Order of Job's Daughters convened its semi-annual conference in the bi-state metropolitan area. Representatives of 79 chapters in Illinois met at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis, during the weekend, including 24 members of Granite City Bethel 43, accompanied by nine chaperones.

At the convention, the Granite City Bethel was announced as having the largest membership enrollment in the state, totaling 94 girls. There are 2,270 registered Job's Daughters in Illinois.

Under the leadership of Miss Betty Brokaw, Bethel 43 honored queen, and Mrs. Rebecca Slate, Bethel guardian, the local group participated in several activities during the two-day event.

A variety of articles created by the young women were entered in a librarian's competition, directed by Mrs. Lucille Stehman of Collinsville, grand librarian of Illinois. Honors awarded to Quasi-City members included first prize to Miss Brokaw for dreammaking; Sandy Miller, first place, and Robin McBoe, second place, ceramic display; and Leslie Houser, first place for a hand-made manger scene.

Miss Kathleen Lane, a past queen of Bethel 43, was chosen as grand Bethel member for the state and Miss Betsy Slate was selected grand representative in Illinois to New Mexico. Susan Sackett was awarded a scholarship by the grand council to further her education.

Among the social activities were a pizza party hosted by Mrs. Slate and a surprise birthday party given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rapp for their daughter, Kim.

Venice Women's Club luncheon

Wicker baskets filled with pink carnations and matching candlesticks and holders provided the table decor for Mother's Day observance given by the Venice Women's Club during the weekend at the Venice Recreation Center.

Mrs. Madonna Groshong presented handmade corsages to the members as special mementos. Hostesses Mesdames Elsie Canner, Ruth Wicker, Jessie Foley, Ellen Deering and Edith Devine directed the games and awarded prizes.

Greeting cards conforming to the theme were used as favors at a dessert luncheon served after the business session.

A progress report was given on a fund-raising purse sale. Others attending were Mesdames Ila Bauer, Clara Krause, Bess Snell, Marnie Ponce, Vivian McKinney, Ruth Canner, Evil Owens, Nora McCoil, Naomi Boelling, Ora Anderson, Hazel Painter, Rhoda Buente, Sybil Robbs, Alice Mitchell and Rose Scaturro.

Fidelis Class
attends recital

A devotional lesson taken from Psalm 23 was recited by Mrs. Minnie Cavins at a meeting Monday night at the Fidelis Class of Second Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ayers, 2103 Arroyo Ave., were hosts to the group. Roll call was answered with scripture verses.

After the business session, the class members adjourned and attended an organ recital by Jack Jenkins at the First United Presbyterian Church.

Present were Mesdames Ruby Hoffman, Louise Mitchell, Cora A. Miller, Ruth Hassler, Ruth Chapman, Myra Grote and Kay Pearson.

Auxiliary 113 announces Girl Staters

Mrs. George K. Durbin, Girls State chairman of Tri-City American Legion Auxiliary 113, today announced the selection of Diane Marcus and Terry Lynn Hawkins as unit representatives to the Girls State program.

The 1975 delegates will attend the Illinois Girls State project, sponsored by the Illinois Department of the American Legion Auxiliary, at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, June 15, to June 22. Both girls are junior year students.

Miss Marcus, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Marcus, 4106 Stearns Ave., a student at Granite City High School North, is a member of the North Steel City Bella, Pom Pon Squad, National Honor Society, school yearbook staff and Spring Carousal. She serves as a candy stripper at St. Elizabeth Hospital and is a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hawkins, 3117 Fehling Road, Miss Hawkins is a student at South High School. She is a member of the Red Peppers and Girls Athletic Association, and is studying mathematics, science, social studies and art. She is junior member of the American Legion Auxiliary 113 and St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ.

Purpose of the program, Mrs.

Durbin explained, is to provide citizenship and leadership training each year for about 85 high-school-age girls from all sections of Illinois.

Participants are afforded an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens and to learn "by doing" the duties and privileges of American citizenship to better understand and take part in the functions of government, she said.

"Girls State is a mythical state, patterned after the state of Illinois and follows procedures of Illinois governmental bodies as closely as possible," the program chairman noted.

The girls form two political parties, hold conventions, campaigns and elections and perform other duties pertaining to various public offices.

Mrs. Durbin said the delegates spend one day in Springfield, where they attend a session of the Illinois House of Representatives, observing first-hand the legislators at work.

Both Girls State delegates and their families were invited to attend a tea held Sunday at the DuPont American Legion Hall.

Travelers are told of Japan's land shortage

Travelers Abroad met at Prather Junior High School last week with President Roy Lynn presiding. Mrs. Della Aulbaugh gave an illustrated talk about her recent trip to Japan, Taiwan, Bali, Nepal and Thailand.

Beginning with street scenes in Tokyo, Mrs. Aulbaugh pointed out an essential fact about Japan: it is crowded. Other cities rival Tokyo in size, but none approaches it in "noise, bustle and the swirl of its rolling sea of bodies," she related.

"The strolling tourist," said Mrs. Aulbaugh, "sees a weird mixture of the ancient East and the very modern West; the gigantic, 700-year-old Buddha and the Tokyo Tower, a copy of the Eiffel Tower in Paris; the use of chopsticks and the drinking of Coca-Cola."

In numerous pictures, Mrs. Aulbaugh showed that the Japanese countryside is green and unlevel.

"All Japanese live within sight of mountains except where they have chosen to obstruct the view."

"Sometimes it is snow-capped Mt. Fuji, which descends to the sea. More often it is a ring of lower hills closing in a narrow valley."

"Every speck of arable land is tilled to the utmost. Squashes, tomatoes and berries, which in America are allowed to sprawl over the ground, are meticulously trained to climb vertically on elaborate systems of wires," the club told.

Mrs. Aulbaugh showed moving pictures of stage shows, with the performers all young, beautiful girls in colorful costumes.

"These are productions which would be economically impossible in the United States and most of Europe, although admission prices are surprisingly low," she commented.

"In Thailand, elephants are used to handle heavy teakwood logs, which are a valuable export."

"Among Thai amusements are bullfights in which bulls fight only bulls but are not permitted to do each other great injury."

"Quite different from the other lands visited was Nepal, the mighty Himalayas, where many people never go far from their homes."

"Travel across the mountains is impossible except by helicopter, and travel in the city streets is also impeded by sacred cows which lie where they please and simply must not be disturbed," it was noted.

Besides her pictures, Mrs. Aulbaugh displayed numerous fabrics and costume dolls.

Kiwanis speaker tells need of parental responsibility

Parental responsibility cannot be over-emphasized in regard to delinquent behavior of children, Juvenile Officer Donald Bridick of Madison told the Monday evening meeting of the Kiwanis Club in Charlie's Restaurant.

He said many parents will bring a child, about 15 years of age, to the police department and say they just can't do a thing with him and expect the police to straighten out the youth in 15 minutes, when the parents have had him for 15 years.

The officer explained the rights of the juvenile, under the law. When one is picked up by police, the parents and the juvenile officer must be present before questioning, regardless of the time of day or night.

Bridick explained that parents who feel that their child may eventually be getting in with the wrong crowd should contact him first, before it becomes a police matter, and he can and will do everything possible to help solve any potential problems.

Bridick pointed out there are many knowledgeable citizens in Madison willing to help with juvenile problems if asked.

MADISON OPEN
DAILY 9 'til 5:30

Who likes to wrap packages? We do, at Glik's! Sure, Freda Hicks and Mary Stanfill might rather be opening presents than wrapping them, but they know what a great convenience it is for you — and that makes them happy. So, shop early for Mother's Day at Glik's and take home attractive gift wrapped packages — free wrapping, of course.

Why is Leo smiling? Leo has completed his Mother's Day shopping for his wife, Ilene, early — and he won't have to go home and fumble with wrapping paper and ribbon. Glik's wrapped Leo's package and we'll wrap yours, too. So, shop early for Mother's Day and shop at Glik's where packages leave with gift wrap — for free, of course.

Lynn knows how to wrap a package, but why should he bother? At Glik's, where his wife, Sandy, shops for their four children, Lynn buys Sandy a Mother's Day present and leaves the wrapping to us.

Greenhouse production plan proposed for handicapped

Plans to expand activities of OATH, Inc., by purchase of a greenhouse which would be operated by handicapped persons were announced this week by a special Projects Committee.

The committee said decision to proceed with the program was reached after a feasibility study indicated there is a substantial market for the output of a greenhouse operated in the Quad-Cities, as well as products from related businesses.

Efforts will be made locally to raise $10,000 for acquisition of property so that work can proceed on development of a greenhouse and related production operations. OATH, Inc., is the Organization for Advancement of the Handicapped which now operates a production unit in Madison where handicapped persons do contract work. Bill Burns, finance officer of the Projects Committee, said contact will be made with all groups in this area who want to support the project. Anyone wishing to participate may contact Burns at 876-9238.

The committee said that studies have indicated that approximately 10 per cent of the handicapped persons have a natural inclination to and the ability to handle the work involved in a greenhouse operation and plant production. Still another 10 per cent could find employment in businesses allied with a greenhouse operation, the committee said. Much of the money spent in this area on greenhouse products is spent away from the area, with most of the plants shipped in, Burns said. He noted that at least 50 per cent of this business could involve production at a local greenhouse.

The committee emphasized that success of the project will depend upon the support of the community.

"The business community, service and fraternal organizations and others can help with moral support and immediate financial help," Burns said.

Mrs. Vivian Dine is chairman of the Projects Committee which includes Burns, Jack Hood, Henry Helrich, Mrs. Melba Grady and Fred Stille. Any member of the committee may be contacted concerning the project.

A. D. Van Meter appointed to SIU Board; succeeds Fischer

The appointment of A. D. Van Meter Jr., 52, a Springfield attorney and banker, as a member of the Southern Illinois University board of trustees was announced Wednesday by Gov. Daniel Walker.

The appointment is subject to ratification by the Illinois Senate, but Van Meter planned to attend today's meeting of the board at SIU and will have the right to vote, according to the governor's office.

SIU President John S. Rendleman said, "I am very pleased with the governor's appointment. It is in keeping with the splendid appointments which have been made in the past to our board of trustees."

A member of the board of directors of the Mississippi River Festival, Inc., Van Meter will fill the position which has been held by Harold Fischer of Granite City, who served on the SIU Board 21 years. Fischer, who is a past-chairman of the Board, announced recently he would not accept reappointment.

The appointment is for a six-year term, expiring in January, 1981. SIU trustees do not receive salaries. Van Meter has been a member of another non-salaried state board, the State Investment Board, since its inception, and he currently serves as vice-chairman.

A member of the Springfield firm of Van Meter, Oxtoby & Funk, Lawyers, since 1949, the new SIU trustee also is president of the Illinois National Bank of Springfield. He received his juris doctor degree from the Northwestern University School of Law.

Mrs. Van Meter is chairman of the Governor's Mansion Restoration Committee. The Van Meters are the parents of three children, Andy, Alice and Ann.

BREAK INTO CHURCH
A fire extinguisher was all that was believed stolen during a burglary at Miracle Tabernacle, 2814 Victory Drive, reported at 3:10 p.m. Monday.

Entry was gained by kicking a hole in the roof and the ceiling. A yellow powder was scattered through the church. A microphone stand was broken and three others were overturned. A witness said he saw three high-school-age boys on the roof earlier.

Coolidge band students win top contest ratings

Nine senior ratings, 25 first place ratings and one second place rating were earned by 39 Coolidge Junior High School band students who participated during the weekend in the annual state solo and ensemble contest at Matteson, Ill.

Participating students were under the direction of Miss Elsie Mayhail. The students entered 35 events, including 26 solos and nine ensembles. Mrs. Cathy French was accompanied by the full amount of the bid if it totals $200 or less. If the total bid is more than $200, submit 20 percent of the bid or $200, whichever is greater. Upon acceptance of the highest bid, the balance due, if any, will be (X) Required in Full () Deferred as follows:

Lewis-Clark pilgrimage Saturday

The 171st anniversary of the Lewis and Clark expedition will be observed by the seventh Annual Lewis and Clark Pilgrimage of youth Saturday.

The event will take place at 1:15 p.m. with the participants gathering at the ship-to-shore radio station north of the Interstate 270 Chain of Rocks Canal bridge (east of the canal).

All youth groups may participate as long as there is one adult for every ten children. The pilgrimage is sponsored by the Mitchell Lewis and Clark Pilgrimage, Inc., and has national Boy Scout approval as a historical trail.

The groups will hike three and a half miles to the Lewis and Clark State Park where a brief ceremony will be held in honor of the expedition.

The trail is open all year to any and all youth groups as long as they have adult leadership, with the annual pilgrimage held the second Saturday of each year in May.

At what is now the Lewis and Clark State Memorial Park, the explorers assembled, trained and supplied their men for the expedition to find the source of the Mississippi River and a passage way to the Pacific ocean.

The expedition left this area on May 14, 1804.

Hikers are advised to bring their own drinking water. Hotdogs and soft drinks will be available at the starting point. Girl and Boy Scout units and other groups are being asked to bring their U.S. flags, unit, den and patrol flags.

Adult leaders will be responsible for registering their groups at the starting point. Registration will begin at noon.

Measles immunization urged

State public health officials warned during the weekend that children and young people of high school and college age who have not been fully immunized against measles and rubella (three-day, or German measles) should see a physician immediately to obtain the necessary immunizations.

Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, said the warning was issued in the wake of several outbreaks of both diseases which have occurred in various parts of the state since the beginning of the year. "The majority of cases," she said, "have occurred in persons over 12 years of age, and at least two outbreaks have occurred on college campuses."

The most recent measles outbreak is now occurring in Williamson County, where more than 30 cases have been reported, and at least three required hospitalization.

Dr. Lashof pointed out that measles is not the harmless childhood disease it was once believed to be. "Each year, Illinois children are left with vision, hearing or mental deficiencies as a result of measles," she said.

"This is even more tragic when you consider that children today needn't have measles. We have a vaccine to prevent it." The outbreaks of rubella are of serious concern due to the possibility of resultant birth defects if the disease is contracted by a woman during the first 12 weeks of pregnancy. Although rubella is normally a very mild disease for the person who has it, it can cause blindness, deafness or mental retardation in a baby whose mother contracts the disease in the early stages of pregnancy.

Dr. Lashof recommended that all children between the ages of one year and ten years receive rubella immunization. She further recommended that females over the age of 12 who have not received rubella immunization see a physician for advice.

"The last major rubella epidemic, which occurred in 1964, resulted in the births of 20,000 babies in the U.S. with rubella-related birth defects," she said.

Dr. Lashof also recommended measles vaccination or re-vaccination for anyone who received measles immunization prior to 1966 and has not contracted the disease; and anyone who has never been immunized against measles and has not contracted the disease.

"The killed virus measles vaccine used between 1962 and 1966, she explained, "does not always provide complete immunity, so it would be a good idea to be re-vaccinated if you received measles vaccine prior to 1966." Those who have suffered a case of measles do not require vaccination, as they have a natural immunity to the disease.

Archeological grant for SIUE

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has received a grant from the National Park Service, enabling archeological research to continue at the Lily Lake site near Cahokia.

The site is a 90-acre field that will soon become a retention reservoir in a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers drainage system project. Archeologists believe the site was a prehistoric farming hamlet of the Mississippian Indians at Cahokia, around 900-1250 A.D.

Eight SIUE graduate students will take part in the research this summer. It may be the last opportunity to examine the site before it is destroyed. Terry Norris, SIUE graduate student from St. Louis, will again act as field supervisor for the project.

Last summer many artifacts were found at the site and Sidney Denny, assistant professor of anthropology at SIUE, said the discoveries help clarify subsistence patterns of the Mississippian Indians.

Denny has explored Indian sites along the bluffs between Alton and Duplo for several years. He discovered 75 sites, many in danger of being destroyed by urbanization.

The researchers hope they will be able to conclude their work at the Lily Lake site by the end of the summer, and then begin exploration on other endangered sites.

Grant for veterans' program

The Veterans' Upward Bound (VUB) program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has received a grant of $80,000 from the U.S. Office of Education to help Vietnam-era veterans advance their education.

The VUB program, initiated at SIUE in January 1973, enables veterans to meet the requirements for a high school diploma and prepares veterans already possessing a high school diploma for college entrance exams.

James Reidelberger, director, said, "The veterans also receive the satisfaction of getting a high school diploma and acquire knowledge that can be used in everyday life."

The grant, part of a continuing commitment by SIUE, provides funds for classroom, materials, instructors and services for 250 veterans currently enrolled in VUB.

Over 120 veterans have completed the program since it began, and 35 of those are now attending college.

Day camp in June for handicapped youngsters

Physically and speech-handicapped youngsters will enjoy a variety of camping activities at the annual Easter Seal day camp to be held June 16 through June 27 on the campus of Lewis and Clark Junior College in Godfrey.

Co-sponsors of the camp, Alton Junior Service League and the Easter Seal Society of Southwestern Illinois, emphasize that the camp is open to all residents of the 11-county area served by the Easter Seal Society.

Applications for children from three to 10 years of age who have physical or speech handicaps are available now through the Easter Seal office at 410 E. Broadway in Alton. A full program of swimming, art, music, drama, nature study and recreation is offered along with medical supervision and speech therapy. There are special events, fishing and cookouts to round out the ten-day camp.

Transportation is provided for campers and volunteer team counselors from designated pickup points in Alton, Edwardsville, Belleville, Jerseyville and Granite City.

Members of the Alton Junior Service League staff the camp, serving as lifeguards, instructors, nurses and adult counselors. They plan activities in each category of instruction. Provisional members of the League are developing a comprehensive recreation plan adapted to each type of handicap.

The day camp is approved by the Alton Special Education summer school, and students who are eligible will participate as part of their outdoor education program.

GC skate champs to perform at benefit

What began as another benefit to aid a St. Charles, Mo. man in his fight against what doctors have diagnosed as terminal cancer, may become one of that area's major entertainment events of the year.

A "Skate for Life" exhibition of precision roller skating has captured the fancy of top-flight amateur skaters of national and international standing, and nearly 40 of these stars have volunteered to perform in a May 18 show at La Joya Skate Village, five miles south of St. Charles on Highway 94.

Proceeds from the show will be donated to the "Ed Guerra Family Fund" to help defray expenses incurred by the 34-year-old ex-Marine whose injections of a new wonder drug are piling up medical bills at the rate of nearly $1,000 a month.

Guerra and his wife Gail have three youngsters and nearly lost their modest home in a St. Charles County Subdivision as a result of the mounting costs of treatment as doctors attempt to halt the spread of the disease.

Two years ago Guerra was told he had "at most" only six months to live and he seemed destined to become just another victim of lung cancer. Since that time, although the malignancy has spread to his brain, doctors report they are "cautiously optimistic" that the disease may be arrested and Guerra has returned to work on a trial basis.

Thin and exhausted from the side effects of the drugs he is given, and still suffering from the aftermath of a massive stroke which left him partially paralyzed, Guerra continues to hope that he can resume his life and prove the doctors wrong.

This optimism and determination has gained him the support of many individuals and organizations in the St. Charles area and several dances, auctions and turkey shoos have been held, or are scheduled, to help "Ed" climb out from under his pile of bills. The "Skate for Life" show is the latest, and perhaps the most elaborate, event yet to be organized.

Leading the list of award-winning skaters will be Bryan Kasper, U.S. figure skating championship winner in the sophomore division, and his partner Sandi Attrip. Besides being the reigning U.S. champion, the 20-year-old Kasper has amassed innumerable awards in his more than 10 years of competitive skating.

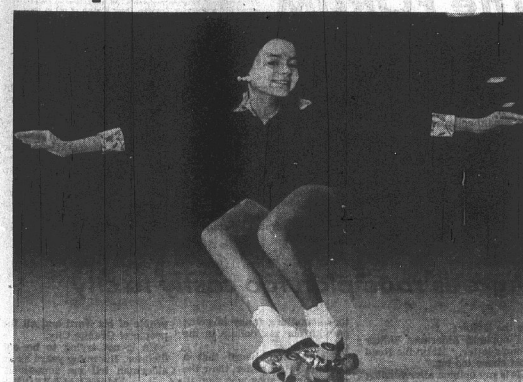

A member of a Hammond, Ind. skating club, Kasper will travel to St. Charles to perform the routines which won him the national skating crown.

From Kansas City, Gary Fudge and Marcie Grelan will appear to perform the intricate maneuvers which won them the senior dance, senior international dance, and free dance events at the 1974 north central regionals and the national American dance and free dance at the U.S. national competition last year in Lincoln, Neb.

Bobby Robertson, second place winner in the free style elementary event at the 1974 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, and the team of John McGuire, "The Skating Priest," and Francis McMillan, winners of the 1974 Illinois-Wisconsin Bi-State championships, will be the 1974 Illinois-Wisconsin Bi-State champions.

U.S. Figure Skating Championships from the Arnold, Mo., area including Art Duffy and Bonnie Guin, winners of many local meets; Mike Maher and Diane Williams, North Central freshman international dance champions in 1973, and Gary and Joan Baumgartner, North Central pairs champions in 1973.

From Ellenville, Mo., comes Mike Brooks and Linda Har-

EASY AS PIE. Karen Korte of Granite City will be one of a host of talented young skaters who will appear in a two-hour benefit spectacular Sunday, May 18, at La Joya Skate Village, five miles south of St. Charles, Mo. on Highway 94. The show will feature top names in the world of amateur skating and is being held to raise funds to aid a St. Charles man in his costly two-year fight against what doctors have diagnosed as terminal cancer. Tickets will be available at the door for a $2 donation.

Mike Brooks and Linda Harmon, North Central Freshman Pairs champions, Award winning skaters from the Belleville, Ill. area at the event will be Patti Burgess, first place in sophomore American ladies figure skating, International figures and singles freestyle and winner of the second International figures and a third in American singles at the Bi-State Championships, Hal Rice, reigning champ in sophomore pairs and 1970 freshman men's figure skating champion; Kathy Krupp, freshman pairs set with the state and last but not least just because of size or age, Penny and Becky Davy, who will demonstrate tryot skating for the three and four-year-old set.

Skating on their hometown, the La Joya Skate Club will take part in the afternoon extravaganza with five award winning teams on the program. Local champs include the teams of Phyllis Mullinger, reigning Illinois-Wisconsin skating queen and Paul Katz; Roland Pfingsten and Roxanne Monroe, 1970 novice champions; Rick Peterson and Patti Kueker, junior international dance event winners at the north central regionals; Karen Korte and Bryan Smith, Granite City, Ill., third place winners in the freshman international dance event at the north central regionals and Tom Hansen and Robin Johnson, also of Granite City, "clean sweep" winners of figures, American dance and international elementary dance at the 1973-74 Bi-State championships.

The teams will be supported by performances from Michelle Dickerson, Tony Barbero, Mindi Clover, Bryan Smith, and Cheryl Jateff, all of Granite City.

Carmen Dickerson, skating pro at La Joya says the May 18 show will be a rare opportunity to see top-flight skaters and to contribute to a worthy cause at the same time.

"It's a chance to see real champions in action. Most of these people are the current reigning champs in their events, without traveling all around the country, or the world, to do it," she explains.

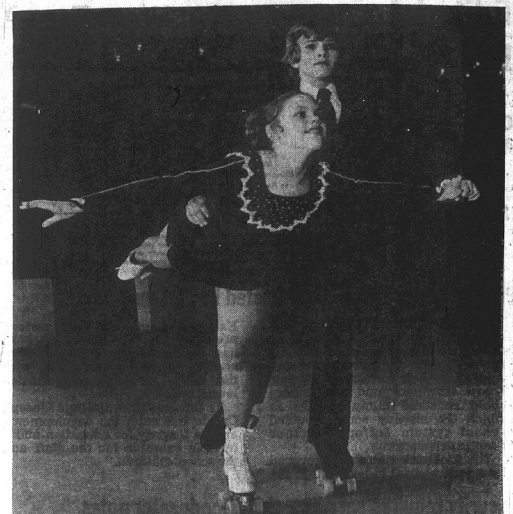

"They will be doing about the same routines they perform in actual competition, nationally and internationally."

The two-hour show generally will follow an Ice-Capades format with comedy and novelty acts interspersed between the dance and figure skating.

There will be a "mock judging" event giving the audience the opportunity to use the ballots included in their programs to vote for various performances and see how their evaluations match up with those of professional judges.

There will be team events with pairs of skaters performing beautiful and intricate dance routines as well as single performers demonstrating various steps in an ascending scale of difficulty. The popular Tiny Tot skaters will do their thing and there will be clowns and fun on skates too.

For those in the audience who think they would like to try

SKATE CHAMPS. The Granite City team of Tom Hansen and Robin Johnson brought home all the trophies in their division at the Illinois-Wisconsin Bi-State Skating Championships in Chicago two years ago, and they will be displaying their prize-winning style May 18 at the La Joya Skate Village five miles south of St. Charles, Mo. on Highway 94. The young champs, who took top honors in Figures, American Dance and International Elementary Dance at Chicago, will be among nearly 40 amateur skaters of national and international standing who will appear at the May 18 "Skate for Life" show for the benefit of a St. Charles man who is waging a costly battle against cancer.

some of the routines they will be seeing, the La Joya management has agreed to supply skates "as long as they last," free of charge after the show.

Performers will remain following the show to conduct an informal skate clinic, so if you've ever wondered what you could do on skates if you had a real champion to teach you, this is your chance.

Doors will open at the La Joya at 1 p.m. on May 18 and the show starts at 1:30. Tickets are available for a $2 donation to the Ed Guerra Family Fund and are being sold by the St. Charles Jaycees, St. Charles Hills Homeowners Association, at La Joya Skate Village on Highway 94 South and will also be available at the door.

Prompt replacement of convicted E. St. Louis board

The Illinois Board of Education is right in ruling that East St. Louis School Board members must be removed after they are sentenced. Appeals of their convictions by four board members and two others could consume many months in which the already sorely-troubled school system suffered further deterioration.

The kickback pattern uncovered by a federal trial indicates that the East St. Louis district's serious problem of a diminished tax base has been compounded by an incredibly poor board attitude, with the needs of students accorded lowest priority.

As Illinois Education Sup. Joseph Cronin has said, the developments are "a tragedy for education and a terrible example for the staff and the school children."

Security requires sacrifice, Gen. Goodpaster notes

"The accomplishments you have realized in a lifetime of selfless service to America will long inspire."

The comments by President Gerald Ford, heard at this month's dinner addressed by retired General Andrew J. Goodpaster, express the high regard in which the former Granite Cityan is held by a wide spectrum of Americans.

In his remarks to the St. Clair County Medical Society, the former supreme Allied commander in Europe conceded that there is "erosion in Europe, deterioration in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and tragedy and disaster in Vietnam. There are charges of betrayal and abandonment against our country."

"We find ourselves in deep economic stress, unemployment, recession, inflation. This is a time of troubles... deeper trends, as though the tide were running against us. Capacity to deal with these problems is being eroded."

Many of the threats arising are non-military—public opinion, deterioration in confidence, loss of unity and loss of public trust in Congress, the academic community, the press and among youth."

His recommendations, along with a sweeping reappraisal of the "careful process of selection" in U.S. stands on world issues and conditions. He urged continued spending to assure adequate military strength.

Important, in the view of the distinguished officer, is that Americans not conclude that all risks can be avoided while simultaneously "taking for granted the benefits of military strength—our security and freedom."

Advanced technology could aid death investigations

Guest comment by the Committee for an Illinois Medical Examiner System—Legislation to create a statewide medical examiner system for Illinois has again been introduced in the Illinois House of Representatives by State Rep. W. Timothy Simms (R, Rockford) and 14 other sponsors, including Mrs. Celeste Siehl (R, Belleville).

The proposed new system would be administered on a statewide basis by a 12-member board to be housed in the Illinois Department of Public Health. The board would have four physicians from the organized medical groups, three lawyers from the organized legal groups, three representatives of major "consumers" of the service, and two public members.

The board would be charged with appointing a chief medical examiner who must be a forensic pathologist, to administer the system under a proposed seven-district regional basis. The legislation also requires that regular pathologists must head each district.

The need for a medical examiner system is based on the increased number of violent deaths, the increase in drug abuse, the need for discovery of public hazards, and private accidents as well as serving private claims. Increased progress in the technology of medical-legal investigations has shown that Illinois lags far behind the 37 states that have switched to the medical examiner systems.

State GOP hunts for a majority

CHICAGO — The Republican Party in Illinois is about to begin the first major reform since World War I. The goal is not to elect a Republican governor but to recover from the Watergate disaster but to become the majority party within 10 years, a position the GOP has not held since the Civil War until the Roosevelt landslide in 1932.

In the 1974 elections, Republicans lost seats in Congress, control of both houses in the Illinois General Assembly and scores of county offices.

Immediately after the November balloting, Sen. Charles Percy called a conference of Illinois GOP leaders. The result was the creation of a blue-ribbon volunteer group to work under the title, 76-76 Task Force.

The task force was given the directive to immediately hold grass root conferences across the state and, based on information generated at these hearings, make recommendations for party reform.

The Party conference had two goals with not much time to accomplish the first. The first objective is to introduce reforms that will enable Illinois Republicans to conduct effective campaigns in 1976 and begin winning back some of the offices given up in the 1974 Democratic sweep.

The second goal is to carry on the Republican advance that Republicans can in the 1980s again be the majority party in Illinois.

port and recommendations. This report is now being studied by GOP leaders across the state, many of whom already consider it to be the most important party document to be issued in a decade, perhaps several.

Every year the Illinois Republican State Central Committee will decide which of the many proposed reforms should be marked for immediate adoption and implementation.

Here are some of the recommendations.

FULL-TIME CHAIRMAN — The position of the chairman of the state central committee, now largely honorary, should be made a full-time job with adequate compensation.

STATE OFFICE STAFF — Provide a full-time professional staff, including specialists in political party organization, research, public relations and fund raising, to provide direction and guidance. At present the state office is run by volunteers.

MAKE IT EASY TO JOIN — Every person who votes Republican in a primary election should be welcomed as a member of the Republican Party of Illinois.

To the Editor: I am writing The Forum for the first time. I am concerned about the May 1 article, "Vietnam collapse shakes U.S. credibility."

There are several parts of the article with which I differ, at least in theory. My personal feelings are mixed, but it is a terrible thing that is taking place in Vietnam.

To the Editor: I write to you in regard to the upcoming bicentennial.

This is a great American event for which we should be proud. In regard to this, I have written "200 Years."

Each line and word reflect my feelings for our beloved land, America the free.

In the days and years ahead, may God continue to bestow enough mercy upon us to enable us to remain America the free.

Urge new foreign strategy

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson, D-Ill., believes the fall of Saigon frees the United States to form a rational foreign policy and will be so perceived by most of the world and domestic audience.

Other Illinoisans in Congress also expressed both sorrow and relief Wednesday that the United States may be last out of the Southeast Asian quagmire.

"In all the world outside East and Southeast Asia," Stevenson said, "the collapse of Saigon is a perspective as revealing as the United States of an intolerable political and economic burden — and a role quite out of keeping with our normal, civilized and sensible world behavior."

"The consequences," he continued, "Especially if preceded by some evidence of regained wisdom, will be beneficial for the U.S."

Declaring there "is no foreign policy now" for Congress and the public to unite behind, Stevenson said the nation's "first order of business" to be the formation of a new alliance of Europe, North America and Japan.

"Such an alliance could once again become the collective balance of power in the world and also for action upon such large questions as nuclear proliferation and access to commodities at reasonable prices."

Stevenson believes such an alliance would be the first international step in governing trade and investment in a "fractured world."

"Such a high endeavor will be led by the United States or not at all," he said.

Rep. Paul Findley, R-30th Dist., a member of the House International Relations Committee, said, "History will be the final judge" of whether the price America paid in the dead, wounded and handicapped of the Vietnam War can ever be justified.

"The United States cannot turn back on the world," Findley said. "It can not return safely to isolation. It can not announce all of its commitments to other nations. There will be occasions when it must assume new commitments."

When it does, though, Findley added, it will do so under the Presidential-Congressional cooperation embodied in the war powers resolution, "which passed Congress as a direct result of the Vietnam War."

Rep. John N. Erlenbach, R-14th Dist., said the nation "owes a debt of gratitude" to the Americans who accomplished the evacuation of Americans and Vietnamese.

He said the unrestrained of the House to vote humanitarian aid "proved that the day-to-day operation of government had best be left to the executive."

"More than anything else, I'm glad it's over," Erlenbach said. "The evacuation was a long overdue."

Rep. Tim L. Hall, D-15th Dist., said the end of the Southeast Asian venture was "long overdue."

"I hope that closes the door on a long, sad and unhappy chapter of our history. I hope we have learned a lesson."

He said rather than "name calling," there should be "soul searching" in the wake of the SPRINGFIELD — It's all but official. Illinois U.S. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson, 44, is running for president of the United States.

Beneath the Statehouse dome there has never been any doubt that Stevenson has hopes of achieving the presidency, a goal he twice eluded in his illustrious career. Gov. and U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai E. Stevenson II.

While serving at the Capitol as a member of the Illinois House and later as state treasurer, the younger Stevenson used to shrug off comments that he was aiming at bigger things in the political sphere.

But since he has become a U.S. senator and won reelection by a landslide margin, things have changed. Slowly but steadily he has thrust himself into the presidential candidate's arena.

At the major factor in his now serious bid for the presidency is that the Democrats don't really have anyone else. Stevenson is able to attract broad news coverage not available to most other senators. The fact that he represents such a large, centrally located and politically important state as Illinois, is also a big advantage.

In such a situation, Stevenson clearly implied, he would be available.

Busy life for MRF concert head

By TOMMYE WALTER

Putting the Mississippi River Festival (MRF) together is not so different from putting together a high school theater production, according to Vicky Holt, recently named concert manager of the MRF at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. And she should know, she's produced numerous theatrical events at the high school level.

The new concert manager, who insists on being called "Vicky" rather than Mrs. Holt, is very excited about working with the MRF this summer. "I feel comfortable with it," she said. "It's a very satisfying job. I love to work with people and I like to produce things — a costume, a canner, or a concert," she added.

That revelation should give an idea of how versatile Vicky is. "Within myself I feel I have been given certain skills and I should use them," she said. "Theater majors must be equipped to work at many levels, from acting to building scene sets. Vicky, who is working on her master's degree at SIUE, said, 'I sometimes think I could build a house.'"

The MRF concert manager is not the type to sit at home. "I think that takes a skill — to sit at home and let life pass you by," she said. Life isn't about to pass Vicky Holt by. She'll reach out and grab it by the throat.

The promoters of the MRF found this year's talented concert manager right under their own noses. After five years of teaching drama at the high school level, Mrs. Holt went back to college to get her master's degree in theater. And when she discovered they were searching for someone to do the production work on the MRF, Vicky said, "Why not me?" Indeed, why not? So she applied for the position.

Then she and her husband, Tom, left on a two-week ski vacation in Colorado. "Over the mountains, we discussed whether I would take the job if it were offered to me," Vicky said. "It was and I did," she said.

According to Vicky, her husband is not into the theater, but he has a great interest in music. "He's very supportive of what I do. And his interest in music ties in well with my job," she said.

There are problems. Before the festival opens June 30, Vicky must face her comprehensive examinations. Then after the season is over, she must write her thesis. The thesis will be about Sarah Bernhardt, a woman in the theater, who else?

Along with her other responsibilities, Vicky is doing all the hats for "Major Barbara," a SIUE theater production. Just for fun, according to her. She designed the costumes for "Anastasia," a recent production by the SIUE theater group. Right now, they are on display at Florissant Valley Community College. Vicky is already on the MRF community visitation trail. She attends area social and civic meetings, speaking to special interest groups about the MRF. It is part of an audience development project to broaden the reach of the festival, she said.

Vicky has a problem convincing people that a woman on the production end of the MRF. They ask her where they can reach the concert manager, and when she tells them who she is, they say, "I don't want to see a secretary. I want to see the manager," she laughs.

More than 90 per cent of members of organizations where she speaks have never been to the University or to a performance of the Mississippi River Festival. "It's hard to believe there are gods of people out there who have been missing all this art, music and entertainment. I can't believe it," she said, shaking her head.

PLANNING FESTIVAL. Greg Drexelius, left, student supervisor of ticket collections and grounds security at the Mississippi River Festival, works with Vicky Holt, concert manager, in developing plans for the 1975 festival season on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

British poet at SIUE

Kenneth Hopkins, British author and poet, will spend the next six weeks at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville as its poet-in-residence.

While at the University, Hopkins will be visiting creative writing and English composition classes both on and off campus. According to Daniel Havens, chairperson of the SIUE English and literature department, Hopkins will read manuscripts, offer criticism, advise and offer encouragement to prospective writers on weekdays between the hours of 3:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. "I will talk to anybody about any aspect of writing," Hopkins said.

According to Havens, "Those of us who have had him do this in the past will attest to his charm and wit. He has the easy grace of making poetry come alive for students. Moreover, for young students, the experience of seeing a 'live poet' in the classroom and chatting with him informally is a valuable one."

Hopkins will give a poetry reading May 22 at 12:30 p.m. in the Mississippi-Illinois rooms of the University Center. Poetry classes from area high schools and junior colleges, as well as members of the community, are invited to attend.

Hopkins is the author of several volumes of poetry, eight detective novels and numerous books for children. Translations of his works have appeared in Danish, Italian, Swedish, German and French. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the English and literature department, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville.

Over-counter plate sales save $1 million

Sale of 1975 auto license plates over the counter in Illinois financial institutions saved the taxpayers more than a million dollars, Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, said at Chicago Tuesday.

Howlett spoke at the 84th annual convention of the Illinois Bankers Association in the Palmer House.

"During the last two years, we have increased the number of banks authorized to sell passenger car license plates," said Howlett. "Their help takes some of the burden off the secretary of state's office, and provides more convenient service for the motorist."

"In the 1975 sale, 360 Illinois banks participated—100 more than were in the program for the 1973 sale."

"Plates also were sold over the counter at 675 currency exchanges and four savings and loan associations."

"The financial institutions sold 2,240,858 sets of plates, almost half of the total sale for the year."

"It costs our office 42 cents a set for postage to send plates to applicants by mail. At that rate, the financial institutions saved the taxpayers $941,000 just in postage."

"We handle the sales much faster through the financial institutions, enabling us to save another $133,000 in interest on the revenue received."

"There are additional savings in clerical help in our office, which cannot be computed. To process the sales through financial institutions, we employ 80 people. It would take at least five or six times as many to handle the same work for individuals on mail-in."

"It is easier for our warehouse to ship plates in bulk to banks, instead of one set at a time. And our office receives a single check each week from each bank, instead of thousands of individual checks."

"We hope to expand our over-the-counter sales even further in the future."

"The general thrust of our office is to provide better public service at lower cost. The banks are helping us do this with the over-the-counter sale.

"Our office has a solid working relationship with the banking industry."

"To advise us on how to make it better, we have a Bank Advisory Board of 20 banking executives from all parts of Illinois. They serve without pay, contributing their expertise as a public service."

"By drawing more banks into the program, we have made the plates so easily available that no one in Illinois needs drive more than 20 miles to pick them up."

"For future years, we are sponsoring legislation for special license plate numbers that cannot be reassigned. Illinois law now provides that any motorist can have his current number reassigned for the coming year if he applies by September 30 of the current year."

"Nonreassignable plates will enable banks to begin selling plates over the counter by Dec. 1 which have not been assigned previously and will not be reserved for reassignment in future years. Each bank will then have a complete series, in order, with no numbers missing that have been reassigned to former holders."

Road supplies, ditches discussed; Town Hall parking to be enlarged

Some Nameoki Township residents have questioned the legality of action taken by the Town Board of Auditors at its last meeting during which it authorized Highway Commissioner Albert Bell to select the bid he preferred for road materials and to order the materials.

The board opened several bids for the materials before leaving the decision up to Bell. Some observers felt that only the town board had the authority to approve and accept a bid.

The board agreed to review a dead-end ditch in Northland Estates No. 2 which the health officer said presented a health hazard.

Auditor Eugene Gargac asked if pipe had been purchased to turn an open ditch along Vine Street into an underground storm sewer. Bell said he has purchased the pipe but has not had an opportunity to install it. He pledged it would be installed by next fall.

Gargac also said plans have been completed for enlarging the Town Hall parking lot and work is to begin soon.

A request by Ed Moore, contractor for an addition being built onto the town hall, for $23,729 as partial payment for materials was referred to the architect, John Cohen.

Cohen is to determine if the amount of the partial payment request represents the amount of materials purchased.

At the previous meeting, H. Carl Runge Jr., township attorney, gave a verbal legal opinion that any two members of the five-member board can constitute a quorum. At the last meeting, he presented a formal written opinion on the same subject with supporting documents.

A bid for the board to purchase a used truck for $900 was opened and was held for study. The board needs a truck for the mosquito abatement program.

Objections were voiced over blocked culverts in Miracle Manor, where the highway department has not completed its promised drainage work, and along Route 182 in the Stallings area.

Auditor W. Lee Adams said the state highway division has promised to replace the culverts along Route 182 in the areas where problems are being experienced.

A resident also objected that water is standing in ditches near Joyce Street and Ruth Drive due to inadequate culverts and that the water is becoming stagnant.

Urge public participation in Exceptional Children's Week

Governor Dan Walker has proclaimed this week as Exceptional Children's Week. This will be the 17th year that the Illinois Council for Exceptional Children has observed this week of special attention to the education of exceptional children.

"The organization is especially interested in exceptional children of all ages in the areas of hearing impaired, visually impaired, physically or health impaired, speech and/or language impaired, learning disabled, educationally handicapped, behaviorally disordered, mentally impaired, multiply impaired, and gifted. The Illinois Council for Exceptional Children and the local chapter, Tri-Cities Chapter 841, invited the public to join in observing Exceptional Children's Week and in continuing the work toward the goal of providing involvement through action."

Working through legislators, administrators, educators, parents, citizens, state agencies, and communities, CEC has brought about much action. At the state level, CEC has enabled legislation to improve laws concerning the education and identification of exceptional children, helped to provide leisure time activities, developed vocational training, and provided many other special services.

Among the various contributions the local chapter has made concerning exceptional children are sending an exceptional child to summer camp, providing gym shoes for some, and supporting representatives at the state and national levels of CEC.

Culminating this past year's events will be a band Tuesday evening at Rustoff's in Collinsville. The retiring officers will be honored and the new officers will be installed. They are Stu Mills, president; Debbie Plummer, vice-president; Maude Chilton, secretary; and Esther Vassilef, treasurer. The retiring officers are: Joan Shaffner, president; Duane Leibel, secretary; and Nancy St. Ivany, treasurer, all of Granite City.

Future Secretaries spend day in office

The Madison and Granite City High School Future Secretaries Associations (FSA) participated in the job experience programs as part of the "National Secretaries Week" observance.

For the first time senior secretarial students at Madison High School, organized this year, were afforded an opportunity to spend time in various bank offices in St. Louis. Coordinators were Mrs. Louise Harvey, personnel officer of Boatmen's National Bank, and Miss Joan Barbata of the First National Bank's personnel department.

They arranged plans with Mrs. Charlie Vunovic, secretary to E. S. Jones, board chairman of the St. Louis First National Bank (FNB), for the day-long project.

The 20 students traveled by bus to St. Louis and were assigned to various facilities, where they observed office machines, toured the offices, opened mail, answered phone calls and typed routine paper work.

After lunch the group assembled in the FNB training room where Deborah Bailey, Madison FSA president, conducted a business meeting.

Miss Joan Maes, FNB personnel officer, reviewed instructions for completing application forms correctly, warned against careless posture and "sloppy" attire. She urged the girls to apply for a job individually instead of taking along a friend.

Those spending the day in St. Louis offices from Madison HS were: Debra Bailey, June Goodwin, Linda Gasper, Linda Whitecotton, JoAnn Malone, Judy Goudy and Linda Leleniewski, at First Union and First National Bank.

Cheryl Cawly, Shirley Coonrod, Cynthia Garber, Darlene Goskie, Carol Mayes, Donna Miller, Ellen Richert and Yolanda Washington, Boatmen's Bank.

Cindy Bevil, Romanita King and Judy Willmuth, Mercantile Bank; and Josephine Gorka, Minnie Downs and Juliana K. Miller, Bank of St. Louis.

Fourteen senior members of Granite City High School FSA spent the day in offices with Tri-Cities NSA Chapter members. Jo Elaine Foster, Tammy Gilliam and Melissa King worked in the corporate offices of Ralston Purina Co., St. Louis; Sheryl Patton and Dorothy Miller, First Union, Inc.; and Florence Wain was assigned to the office of the legal counsel at SIUE, under the guidance of Lana Randolph.

Four students, Dawn Wallace, Kathy Burris, Cheryl Davis and Cheryl Kindle went to Belleville Area College; Alicia Berries and Jill Langenstein worked at St. Clair County Farm Bureau - Country Insurance Companies; and Peggy Moore and Metal Services, Madison, supervised

7 bid on town hall addition

The Venice Township Board, at a meeting held last week, opened bids received from seven area contractors competing for a contract to add a conference and storage room to the township's General Assistance office building, located at 1505 Fifth Street, Madison.

Bids received were: Leon Ross Construction, Granite City, $45,019; Co-Mac Construction, East St. Louis, $44,626; Henry Ross Construction, Granite City, $41,993; Leo Wolfe Construction, Granite City, $48,989; Ed Moore Construction, Granite City, $55,773; Wilson Construction, Godfrey, $40,350; and M. H. Wolfe Construction, Granite City, $45,690.

With Wilson of Godfrey submitting the low bid of $40,350, Christ Pashoff, township supervisor, said a contract will be awarded within two weeks, following a review of the bids by the township attorney.

Pashoff explained, however, that work will not begin on the project until the township receives repayment of $28,000 from the township highway department.

That money is due the highway department from the Federal Disaster Administration as reimbursement of money spent in 1973 repairing a section of the Chouteau Levee Road which was washed out in the spring flooding that year.

The $28,000 was advanced from the township's federal revenue sharing fund to the highway department with the understanding the money would be returned when the highway department received its FDA reimbursement. Pashoff said a contract under the bids received last week will be good for 60 days. If the government repayment is not received by then, new bids will have to be called.

Task force to study use of multi-year license plates

To determine the best methods for manufacture and sale of multi-year car license plates, a task force appointed by Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett will study the methods of other states that now use them.

Ronald P. Fox, of Elmhurst, chairman of the committee, said all but six of the 50 states now sell multi-year plates or have voted legislation to start using them.

"We will abide by the current Illinois law which provides that any motorist can keep his current license number for the coming year if he applies by Sept. 30 of the current year," said Fox.

"We will contact motor vehicle administrators in states now using multi-year plates—especially the largest ones, like New York, California and Pennsylvania.

"We will work with traffic engineers, manufacturers, accountants, law enforcement officers and other experts to determine how much money could be saved the taxpayers by multi-year plates and what would be the best way to handle them.

"Then we will recommend appropriate legislation and administrative procedures to make them possible in Illinois." Illinois now uses a steel plate with reflective sheeting. By law, it must be six by 12 inches, must be covered by reflective material and must say "Land of Lincoln."

For a multi-year plate, Fox said, Illinois would need a thicker-gauge steel or aluminum, so it would last longer. The metal now used is made to last only a year.

"More durable plates would cost more initially, but would be much cheaper per year," said Fox. "Other states use plates for two to five years, and California is now considering a 10-year plate.

"In some European countries, permanent plates are used which stay with the car for its life, through any number of owners, just like the bumper. We will study their system, but will recommend nothing to present motorists from keeping the numbers they now have if they request reassignment by deadline date.

"In states where multi-year plates are used, motorists must buy tags or decals to renew their registration annually. Part of our assignment will be to find whether metal tags, affixed to the plate, should be used, or the decals, which may be displayed on the windshield or rear window.

"Earlier studies by the secretary of state's office have met two principal objections to multi-year plates—difficulty of enforcement and possible loss of revenue through neglect of motorists to renew registrations annually.

"We will investigate other information that states now using multi-year plates have enforced the law successfully and have experienced no loss in revenue.

"We expect to need four to six months to find and nail down our facts and make our recommendations. Since 1976 plates already have been purchased, and specifications drawn for 1977 plates, the earliest a multi-year plate could be in effect would be 1978."

St. Boniface scene of Rezabek-Denny nuptials

MARRIED. Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Rezabek, whose wedding took place at St. Boniface Church in Edwardsville, the bride is the former Miss Pamela S. Denny, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Denny, 819 Thorngate Drive.

The Rev. Neal Dee performed a double ring ceremony April 12 at St. Boniface Catholic Church, Edwardsville, uniting in marriage Miss Pamela S. Denny and Francis W. Rezabek. Spring flowers in tall urns were arranged by candelabra and burning tapers to provide the setting for the 2 o'clock afternoon service.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Denny of 819 Thorngate Drive. The groom resides at 2979 West Canons Drive, Peoria, Ill. He is a son of Joseph W. Rezabek, 100 Bunn Ave., Edwardsville, and the late Mrs. Selma Rezabek.

Organist James Havranek accompanied Mrs. Margaret MacZura, who sang "If," "The Wedding Song," "One Hand, One Heart," "Sabath Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the former Miss Denny appeared in a satiniest and re-embroidered lace gown. The fitted midriff and high neckline were accented with tiny lace ruffles and pearls, which were repeated on the shepherdess sleeves.

The demi-bell skirt was enhanced with a flounced hemline, sweeping gently into a chapel train.

Her cathedral length veil, edged in matching lace and trimmed with motifs, was secured to a camel headpiece of pearl-encrusted lace.

She carried a cascade of Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and trailing ivy, centered with a cydium orchid.

The attendants were Mrs. Bruce Miles, Mrs. Nancy Treits, Mrs. Donna Jean Rezabek and Tonya Robins, both cousins of the bride, and Donna Denny.

All wore identical gowns created in shocking pink floral chiffon featuring deep scoop necklines, edged with circular ruffles, and fitted bodices. The long skirts had a deep ruffled flounce at the hem.

Each carried a cluster of spring flowers tied with matching streamers.

IN OBSERVANCE OF NATIONAL "BE KIND TO ANIMALS WEEK" MAY 4 - 10

THE A.P.A. ANIMAL SHELTER VOLUNTEERS WANT TO SHARE THE FOLLOWING WITH YOU:

THOUGHTS FROM INSIDE THE ANIMAL SHELTER

I open the door. The sound of their cries All craving affection Brings tears to my eyes.

Here comes a tabby, The mother of five, She's frightened and thin Just barely alive.

"She keeps having kittens," Or did, so they say. "And I can't afford The price of a spay!"

Can Tabby afford This change in her life? Once wanted and loved, Now left in this strife.

She sits in her cage Her eyes wild and cold. She'll try to adjust. Perhaps she's too old.

The puppies and kittens In cages, in rows, Need someone to love them. Believe me, it shows.

But why are they here These soft living things? Their eyes filled with hunger That loneliness brings.

They keep pouring in At a sickening rate. But where do they come from, In numbers so great?

From people who loved them Or did, so they say. "As long as they're cute And do things 'my way'."

But puppies grow up. We all do, I hear. But we're not as dependent As those who come here.

All of them lonely, Most, filled with fear; Some, just plain lucky They ended up here.

Their pain is unspoken Their eyes tell their tales, "We gave them our love, But love sometimes fails."

Older Americans month

Governor Dan Walker has proclaimed May 1975 as Older Americans Month, highlighting the theme, "Older Americans are a National Resource."

In his written proclamation, Governor Walker said: "Older Americans — A National Resource" is the keynote of many of Illinois' programs for senior citizens, an appreciation of their wisdom and know-how and understanding kindness increases.

Based on the conviction that youth and age complement each other and that the experience and reactions of each can benefit the other, programs are designed to bridge the generation gap and bring individuals of all ages together. This association would ideally be a part of family life embracing several generations — a way of life that seems to be disappearing from the American scene.

Particularly promising is a growing movement for senior citizens to participate in school lunch programs. Grandparents have also been recruited as consulting volunteers in classrooms of young children. More than a hundred and thirty programs involving senior citizens are being coordinated by the Illinois Department of Aging. The services include multi-purpose senior centers, information and referral, health care, transportation, congregate meals which provide an opportunity for sociability, telephone reassurance, adult day care and community activities.

Without the assistance of thousands of volunteers, however, these programs would never develop and operate effectively.

Therefore, I, Dan Walker, Governor of the State of Illinois, proclaim May, 1975, Older Americans Month and express my personal appreciation to the dedicated volunteers in various programs."

DEPENDING ON EACH OTHER

...and on You!

Many parents refuse to face the possibility that accident could leave their children dependent on others. Unpleasant though the thought may be, it is still up to you to provide for them until they are ready to stand on their own feet.

First off, determine which relative or friend would accept the responsibility of loving and caring for them. Then ask your attorney to draw a will specifying that individual. Consider too, naming us as Executor or Trustee to handle business affairs and give professional management to your estate. We are serving hundreds of others and will be honored to accept this trust from you. Call now (452-1313) to come in with your attorney and discuss details of this service. Our trust officers will be happy to place their experience at your disposal.
